

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS IN EUROPE CONFERENCE – IREC 2015

Converging or diverging industrial relations in Europe?

10–11 September 2015, University of Gothenburg, Sweden

Dept. of Sociology and Work Science – and Gothenburg Port, the largest in the Nordic countries

CALL FOR PAPERS

The conference will take place at Gothenburg University from the 10th (early start) to 11th of September 2015. Please submit abstracts (max 400 words) before 31 March 2015 to irec2015@socav.gu.se. Papers may be theoretical and/or empirical (using qualitative or quantitative methods). As in previous conferences European comparative research papers are especially welcome. Please refer in your abstracts to one of the 10 themes below:

- Theme 1: Developments in European industrial relations
- Theme 2: European social dialogue
- Theme 3: Trends in collective bargaining and wage setting
- Theme 4: Transnational trade union cooperation
- Theme 5: Trade union revitalization and social movements
- Theme 6: Changing employment and working conditions
- Theme 7: Labour market mobility and migration
- Theme 8: Industrial relations in the Nordic countries
- Theme 9: HRM and union influence on company and workplace level
- Theme 10: Trade union responses to fiscal austerity and unemployment

WEBSITE & CONTACT

Further information on the streams and updates will be published on our website: <http://www.socav.gu.se/forskning/IREC2015>

Organising Committee: Prof. Bengt Larsson, Prof. Bengt Furåker, Dr Kristina Lovén Seldén, Ass. Prof. Tomas Berglund, Ass. Prof. Mattias Bengtsson . Contact: irec2015@socav.gu.se

UNIVERSITY OF GOTHENBURG
DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY AND WORK SCIENCE

UNIVERSITY OF GOTHENBURG
CENTRE FOR GLOBAL HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

UNIVERSITY OF GOTHENBURG
CENTRE FOR EUROPEAN RESEARCH